

August 22, 1985

Dear Roger:

This is what I've got so far. I seem to be running out of ideas but hope that when we look at the pictures things will occur to me. For some reason the origin of the name Parliament Hill has become an obsession, but in truth no one seems to have any ideas. I have sent off for a book that is supposed to have some ingenious conjectures and should have that in a couple of weeks. I dare say you are up to your neck in what piled up in your absence, but this is my slack season and I have been trying to get somethings done but, as you can see, without a lot of luck. I do look forward to seeing what Jack has wrought.