Box 1:

Rangoon University Library Ford Foundation Project, 1958.
   Correspondence of Richard B. Harwell, Paul Bider, David H. Clift, and others, relative to Bixler's appointment and travel preparations to establish a Social Science Library at the University of Rangoon.

   Correspondence and memoranda, primarily between Harwell and Bixler, following Bixler's arrival in Rangoon in early August 1958.

Mandalay Project, 1959-60.
   Correspondence, primarily of Harwell and Jay Daily, relative to Daily's appointment to supervise the establishment of a University library at the University of Mandalay; progress reports.

Rangoon Project, 1959-60.
   Bixler's progress reports and lectures; a background summary of the Burma Projects; and correspondence.

   Reading lists, pamphlets, and brochures prepared and/or provided by the Ford Foundation's Overseas Development Program to provide cultural and historical orientation for prospective overseas administrators of projects funded by the Foundation in Burma.

   Correspondence, memoranda, and progress reports.

Rangoon Project, 1960-61.
   Correspondence between Hartwell, Bixler, the Ford Foundation, Joseph H. Reason, and others; Bixler's return to the U.S., September 1960; Reason (Bixler's successor) arrives in Burma in April/May 1961.

   Final draft and correspondence relating to the publication and distribution of Bixler's lecture at the Burma-America Institute, March 1, 1960, entitled Books Are For Reading.

Rangoon Project - (Trainee--Mrs. Cho), 1960-61.
   Correspondence pertaining to Helen Hlaing Hlaing/sic/Cho and her library study in the U.S.

Burma Trip (Harwell), June, 1961.
   Correspondence, confidential reports, and other documents generated by Harwell's trip to Burma to inspect and evaluate the Burma Projects.

   Correspondence, primarily of Robert B. Downs, Raynard Swank, Harwell, Bixler, and Clift, relative to the termination of the Burmese Projects necessitated by a coup d'etat in Burma.
    Correspondence and reports; wrap-up of the Mandalay Project.
    Correspondence, primarily between Reason and Mark M. Gormley; reports; wrap-up of the Rangoon Project; library trainees in the U.S.
    Requests for Bixler's out-of-print book.
Mandalay trainee (U KYAW), 1961-62.
    Correspondence and records relating to the library training of U Maung Kyaw at the University of Michigan.
Mandalay Trainee (U KAUNG NYUNT), 1961-62.
    At Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.
Rangoon Trainee (DAW KHIN KHIN OHN), 1961-62.
    At the University of Illinois.
Rangoon Trainee (U MAUNG MAUNG), 1961-62.
    At the University of Illinois.
Rangoon Trainee (MYINT MYINT KHYN), 1961-62.
    At Indiana University
Rangoon Trainee (U MYO LWIN), 1961-62.
    At Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.
Rangoon Trainee (U OHN PE), 1961-62.
    At the University of Michigan
Mandalay -- Books, Supplies -- Correspondence, 1959-61
Rangoon -- Books -- Purchase Orders, Complete, 1958-59
Rangoon -- Equipment, 1958-60, (Purchase Orders)
Rangoon -- Order Correspondence, 1959-62