AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES ANNOUNCES 2015 GALLAGHER AWARD WINNERS

CHICAGO, June 9, 2015 — The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) today officially announced the four legal information professionals recognized with the 2015 Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award—AALL’s highest honor.

The 2015 Gallagher Award winners are:

• Timothy L. Coggins, law professor and associate dean for library and information services at the University of Richmond School of Law Library in Richmond, Virginia
• Penny A. Hazelton, professor of law and associate dean for library and technology services at the University of Washington Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library in Seattle
• Sarah (Sally) G. Holterhoff, associate professor of law librarianship and government information/reference librarian at the Valparaiso University Law School Library in Valparaiso, Indiana
• Sarah (Sally) K. Wiant, professor of law at the Washington and Lee University School of Law in Lexington, Virginia

Established in 1984 to acknowledge sustained service to law librarianship, exemplary association support, and outstanding professional literature contributions, the Gallagher Award is presented to individuals who have completed or are nearing completion of an active professional career.

The 2015 Gallagher Award recipients will be recognized for their contributions at the 108th AALL Annual Meeting & Conference, to be held in Philadelphia from July 18-21, 2015.
