FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Cara Schillinger
Director of Membership, Marketing, and Communications 312.205.8020
cschillinger@aall.org

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES ANNOUNCES
EXECUTIVE BOARD ELECTION RESULTS

AALL Membership Elects 2015 Vice President/President-Elect
and Board Members

CHICAGO, December 4, 2014—The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) announced its 2015-2016 Executive Board election results today. The membership elected Ronald E. Wheeler, Jr., as its vice president/president-elect and Emily R. Florio and Mary Eileen Matuszak as new board members.

Wheeler currently serves as director of the law library and information resources at Suffolk University Law School’s Moakley Law Library in Boston. He holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan Law School, a Master of Library and Information Science from Wayne State University, and a Bachelor of Arts in business administration-accounting from the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Wheeler previously worked at the University of San Francisco School of Law, Georgia State University College of Law Library, and University of New Mexico School of Law Library. His one-year term as AALL vice president will begin in July 2015; in July 2016, he will be named president.

“The American Association of Law Libraries represents high-quality continuing education, leadership development, and deep and enduring professional relationships and networks,” Wheeler said. “Throughout my career, AALL has been the hub for every aspect of my professional growth. I look forward to assisting AALL in continuing its role as the leading resource for legal information professionals.”

Florio, manager of library services at Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, LLP in Washington, D.C., is a graduate of Simmons College in Boston, where she received a Master of Library Science. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Vermont and held previous positions at international law firm Fish & Richardson and New England Law in Boston.

Matuszak, director of library services at the New York County District Attorney’s Office in New York, received a Master of Arts in library science from the Palmer School of Library and Information Science at the C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University, currently known as LIU Post. She also received a Bachelor of Arts in economics and political science from the State University of New York at Binghamton and was previously employed at law firm Piper & Marbury’s New York office, the Legal Aid Society’s Criminal Appeals Bureau, and the Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

Florio and Matuszak will also begin their terms in July 2015. For more information on the current AALL Executive Board, please visit www.aallnet.org/main-menu/Leadership-Governance/executiveboard. For more information on AALL, please visit www.aallnet.org.

About AALL
The American Association of Law Libraries was founded in 1906 to promote law libraries' value to the legal and public communities, foster the law librarianship profession, and provide leadership in the legal information field. With nearly 5,000 members, AALL represents law librarians and related professionals who are affiliated with law firms; law schools; corporate legal departments; courts; and local, state, and federal government agencies. For more information, visit www.aallnet.org.

###