Committee Name: Indexing of Periodical Literature Committee

Major Activities
for 2014-2015:

The Committee continues the work of fine tuning the inclusion of ancillary or companion blogs of already indexed periodical. The Committee is also still debating whether to include a broader range of legal blogs but have concerns with the permanence of content published in this format.

As always, the Committee proactively identifies new publications throughout the year. The Committee completed its review of publisher websites to identify privately published journals. The Committee is systematically checking the websites of ABA-approved law schools in order to identify new journals, online companions and blogs.

The Committee submits a list of approved titles to TGG at regular intervals. As of March 2, 2015, since our last activities report, we approved thirty-four titles, rejected twenty titles and have eleven titles under review.

The Committee encourages members of the AALL community to submit new journal titles for review.

Proposed Activities
for 2015-2016:

The Committee will continue to evaluate titles submitted to the Committee and proactively identify publications for possible inclusion in the index. The Committee will continue to weigh whether certain blogs have established a permanence that warrants their inclusion in the index.
