

Minnesota Association of Law Libraries

1961

1962

1970

1971

1974

1975

AALL established a scholarship fund and invited chapters to contribute gifts in memoriam and other gifts. MALL sent a gift a month after approval in memory of two deceased chapter members.

Sixty invitations were sent to area law firm librarians in an effort to expand membership.

January: The national president addressed MALL on "The Electronic Retrieval of the Law" as a plan of the American Bar Association.

September: V. 1 #1 of the MALL Newsletter was published. A Special Committee on Institutes was formed to "organize a regional chapter institute comparable to the national rotating institutes."

May: A by-laws revision was approved which added a new section on dues and established seven committees.

June: 67th Annual AALL meeting was held in St. Paul.

Downtowners was established to help meet the practical needs of law librarians in the corporate or law firm setting.

MALL held a seminar to train members to use the KF classification schedule.

May: MALL membership was 157 members with 23 new members this year.

February: MALL celebrated its 40th anniversary at the Minnesota Club in St. Paul with greetings from Justice Wahl, music by Illyrian Minstrels, and entertaining library science milestones.

June: MALL hosted the 83rd AALL Annual Meeting in Minneapolis. Attendance broke all previous records at 2,754.

Conan the Librarian on the Information Highway took on Internet mavens and other electronic infomaniacs in 25 parts.

MALL member Ann Carter won the first West Excellence in Private Law Librarianship Award.

July: MALL sponsored three delegates to the National Conference on Legal Information Issues at the AALL Annual Meeting in Pittsburgh

An Internet column debuted in the newsletter.

Minnesota Association of Law Libraries

