Ah, here’s where we may turn and be
Down paths of Memory,
Back in the land we used to know
The land ofUsed-to-be.

FOREWORD.

WHEN the mystic hour of years terminates the vanishing pleasures of your school days into golden memories, every moment connected with that life will be a precious nugget. But you must be diligent in collecting them; you must mount them neatly, and you must be sure to take good care of your Memory Book.

You will enjoy your book in many unexpected ways. Think how it will please your parents and your friends at home. Who, even next summer you may want some of these young friends to return with you to School, and this book will remind the interesting life you lead; the very life they now be looking forward to.

The little extra line you write in it now will be regret, so interest, compounded many times over. Gather interesting and unique treasures and keep them in the envelope until you have time to properly mount them, but take a rainy day once in a while and be sure to keep the ruled pages up to date.

If you could realize how you will value this book ten years from now, you will not neglect it. So look ahead and expect to sit sometime with one of your parents, and shake the burden of time from your shoulders by turning these pages over again. Look forward to that time, and many others just as enjoyable, and build your Memory Book with this in view.
Book of Friends: May it include the wise, the witty and the shrewd,
And such as own the double art, that makes them friends of head and heart.
May those who stand recorded here grow dearer with each added year;
Acquaintance into friendship grow, and friendship ever brighter gleam.
Old friends are best, we lightly say—but, as they fall upon the way,
Keep full the ranks with newer friends, till time the adjective amends.
And if old friends still seem the best, the adage should be thus expressed:
Friends are not best because they're old, but old, because the years that rolled—
The years that try, and mar and mend, have proved them worth the title friend.

THE GIRL OF ILLINOIS

You meet her on the campus,
You meet her in the hall,
At a lecture or a ball,
She's never one to amuse,
And yet wherever she may appear,
You know her just the same.

Chorus
O College Girl—the Girl of Illinois,
O College Girl, her hair's of gold and blue,
O College, College Girl—The Girl of Illinois,
The witching spell she wields as well,
There's nothing can destroy,
O College, College Girl—Charming, captivating Girl of Illinois.

“Okee-Wow-Wow”

Old Princeton calls her Tiger,
Washington her rival,
And they give the same old hark! Hark! hark!
To each decal they call me,
And fill my heart with joy,
In the good old Okeehow-wow,
That they yell as Illinois.

Chorus
Okeehow-wow, Illinois,
Our eyes are all on you,
Okeehow-wow, Illinois,
Wave your orange and your blue, hark! hark!
When the team goes out before you,
Every man stand up and yell,
Back the team and give Washington,
Chicago, Indiana, Minnesota,
Okeehow-wow, Illinois.

Toledo Maroons may he famous
And the name you often hear,
But they cannot take the last field.
Each College man holds head high,
We cook with pride of Illinois,

Illinois.
THE GIRL OF ILLINOIS

You meet her on the campus,
You meet her in the hall,
You meet her in the classroom,
At a lecture or a ball.
She's everywhere as she wanders,
She's varicolored as a rainbow,
And she wherever she may appear,
You know her best of all.

CHORUS

O College Girl—the Girl of Illinois,
O College Girl, she's loyal and true to the
Orange and Blue.
O College, College Girl—The Girl of Illinois,
She's wearing brown and blue as well.
There's nothing else so dear.
O College, College Girl—Chock-full of knowledge, glue.
She's fascinating, captivating Girl of Illinois.

"OKEE-WOW-WOW"

Old Princeton says her rite,
Wisconsin her name,
And they give the same old huz! Huz! Huz!
At each University.

Oke-wow, wow, they always thrill me,
And fill my heart with joy,
In the good old Oke-wow, wow,
That they yell at Illinois.

CHORUS

Oke-wow, wow, Illinois,
Oke-wow, wow, Illinois,
Orange and Blue,
They're our banner, our blue.

You meet her on the campus,
You meet her in the hall,
You meet her in the classroom.
At a lecture or a ball,
She's everywhere you turn,
She's raised on the stage,
And wherever she may appear,
You know she's got the same.

She L. & A. gives culture
in grace and power combined;
She science stands for practiced hands;
For strong and steadfast mind.
While in harmony,
In course and sweet,
With social powers for gayer hours
Harmoniously complete.

CHORUS
0 College Girl—the Girl of Illinois.
0 College girl, she's loyal and true to the Orange and Blue.
0 College, College Girl—The Girl of Illinois.
The witching spell she wields so well,
There's nothing can destroy;
0 College, College Girl—Check out information.
That's the fascinating, captivating Girl of Illinois.

"Oskis-Wow-Wow"

Old Princeton rolls her eyes,
Winona her varsity,
And that the same old cast! Reh! Reh! Reh!
At each University,
She stillsell that always cheers me,
And fills my heart with joy!
In the good old Oskis-Wow-Wow,
That they tell at Illinois.

CHORUS
Oskis-Wow-Wow, Illinois.
Our eyes are all on you.
Oskis-Wow-Wow, Illinois.
Wave your orangies and your Blue! Reh! Reh! Reh!
When the band plays out before you,
Every man stand up and yell.
Back the team and give Wisconsin.

Call to Worship, (all things—silent prayer).
Minister—Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor standeth in the company of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the contemptible.
People—Not yet delight is in the Law of Jehovah; and in his law he meditated day and night.
Minister—Blessed is the man that doth meditate on Law and Meditate on the Word of the Law, that he may be his own judge and be deified by the Lord.
People—May many be cleansed, and may many be cleansed.
Minister—Not every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of Light, with none to be his own judge and be deified by the Lord.
People—If any man thinketh to himself to be religious, while he traffics not his tongue but doeth not to his heart, this man’s religion is vain.
All—Pure religion and undefiled before God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Honor System Ballot

Class:
Columbia

Questions:
1. Do you favor the adoption of a honor system of any kind, if the student attends evening classes? Yes or No.
2. Do you favor the continuation of the honor system if the student attends evening classes? Yes or No.

Proposals for Women's Honor Board

A. The following proposals are made for the adoption of the women's honor board. If the proposal is accepted, what action would you propose?
   - Indicate by a cross opposite your preference

1. A board of five, one to hold the endorsement, one officer elected by the senior class, one officer elected by the sophomore class, and the president elected by the junior class.
   - The two junior officers are to be elected at the first meeting of the junior and senior classes.

2. A board of five to be chosen from a list of all.
   - This list shall be maintained by the committee of the Women's League.
   - The list shall contain the names of five officers, five students, and one faculty member. The two junior officers shall be chosen by the Women's League at large.

3. It is expedient that there will be some students, especially women, to be elected, who will maintain the system.
   - The system is to be strictly maintained; each violation must be reported.
   - Would you if you should see a violation be reported? Yes or No?
   - If the system is to be strictly maintained, is it possible that the system could be trusted? Yes or No?
