

2/0/810
President
Reports of the President
Commencement and Convocation Addresses, 1961-

Box 1:

- David. D. Henry, "The State of the University: Some Points of Interest, 1958-59," Faculty Assembly, December 9, 1958
- Albert J. Harno, "The Domains of Human Action: Free Choice, Obedience to the Unenforceable, and the Law," Midyear Convocation for Graduates, January 29, 1961 (3 copies)
- Otto Kerner, "Universities and Economic Development," papers presented at the Testimonial Dinner in Honor of Professor Frederick Seitz, President, National Academy of Sciences, September 24, 1962, Chicago, IL
- Harlan Hatcher, "The Role of the Trustee in the Public University," University of Illinois Citizens Committee, Biennial State-wide Meeting, May 23, 1962 (2 copies)
- Otto Kerner, Address, Commencement Exercises, June 16, 1962
- Mark Van Doren, "The Joy of Being Serious," New Year Convocation, September 15, 1963
- Henry T. Heald, "The Uses of Talent: The Role of Intellectual Leadership," Commencement Exercises, June 15, 1963
- Phillips Talbot, "The University Graduate and International Service," Midyear Convocation for Graduates, January 21, 1964 (2 copies)
- Adlai E. Stevenson, "The Centrality of Education," Honors Day Convocation, May 1, 1964 (2 copies)
- Dr. Abram L. Sachar, "Hard Words Wear Nailed Boots: The Role of Responsible Dissent," New Year Convocation, September 20, 1964
- James B. Reston, "The Rest of the Sixties," New Year Convocation, September 19, 1965
- Dr. Leland J. Haworth, "Science in Human Affairs," Commencement Exercises, June 19, 1965
- Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., "Our Revolutionary Age," Commencement Exercises, June 18, 1966 (2 copies)
- Max Abramovitz, "The Troubled Search: New Dimensions in a Changing Environment," New Year Convocation, September 18, 1966 (3 copies)
- James A. Perkins, "Ideals and Experience: Some Perspectives for Students and Faculty," Honors Day Convocation, May 5, 1967 (4 copies)
- David E. Lilienthal, "The Changing Role of the Businessman in Public Affairs," Commencement Exercises, June 17, 1967 (3 copies)
- Walter Gropius, "The Vertical City," Centennial Year Convocation, February 18, 1968 (4 copies)
- W. L. Everitt, "Empathy - The Hope of Society," Commencement Exercises, June 15, 1968 (4 copies)
- Elvis J. Stahr, "The most Glaring Gap in Education," Honors Day Convocation, May 2, 1969 (2 copies)
- Richard B. Ogilvie, "Our Testament of Faith in Youth," Commencement Exercises, June 14, 1969 (2 copies)