

2/12/13
 President
 David D. Henry
 Chicago Circle Campus Dedication, February 26, 1965

Recorded at 7 1/2

- | | |
|---------|---|
| 1-14 | President David D. Henry, University of Illinois
Introduces speakers |
| 15-56 | Governor Otto Kerner
Congress Circle, Chicago branch
a new urban university
a new architectural experience
"Illinois to lead the field in education"
"pioneering in higher education"
"money alone will not provide" opportunities
This campus is a greater challenge to the teachers.
a new and a great educational institution. |
| 57-64 | David D. Henry |
| 65-111 | President of the Board of Trustees Howard Clement
Quotes Jonathan B. Turner at dedication of first University building.
These buildings are a realization of his prophecy.
Friends of the University have guided and goaded to secure this campus. |
| 112-134 | David D. Henry |
| 135-175 | President of Student Congress Tony Podesta
Welcome distinguished guests to the opening of Chicago Circle.
Confinement at Navy Pier.
"A degree granting-state university in Chicago." |
| 176-190 | David D. Henry |
| 191-218 | Mayor Richard J. Daley
We are grateful to many people.
"the great renaissance and the rebuilding of the West Side of Chicago." |
| 219-223 | David D. Henry |
| 224-269 | Vice President Norman Parker
At 1 p.m. today 5,000 students will attend classes here. "Opening of the first land grant and stat-supported urban university in Illinois." "dedicated to progress in higher education." "the highest standards of education." |
| 270-319 | David D. Henry
Governor Kerner cuts ribbon for State of Illinois
President Clement cuts ribbon for University Trustees
Mayor Daley cuts ribbon for City of Chicago |
| 320-355 | "This campus is now open for all the hard work that you are going to give." |