12/2/24
Fine & Applied Arts, Architecture
Thomas E. O'Donnell Papers, 1922-1961

Box 1:

Lecture, "Ictinus and Calliciates, Architects to the State," March 10, 1940
Photographs and illustrations for the U. of I. campus architectural history
Photographs of new Georgian buildings on campus
Manuscript and clippings on the dedication of new architecture building in 1928
Letters from people including Governor Dwight Green and Department of Architecture letters to O'Donnell, 1919-1953
Letters, 1936
Letters, 1935
Letters, 1934
Letters, 1931
Letters including correspondence regarding the book, The History of the Campus Plan, 1930
Letters including correspondence regarding the Ricker Manuscript Translations done by O'Donnell, 1929
Letters, 1928
Letters including correspondence from Pencil Points, Architecture and Architectural Forum, 1927
Letters, 1926
Letters, 1925
Letters, 1924
Letters including correspondence regarding early Illinois architecture, 1923
Letters including correspondence regarding O'Donnell's interest in Ohio and early American architecture, 1922
Plans and detailed drawings of Spanish Renaissance architecture
Plans and detailed drawings of Ohio wood decoration, ornaments, and gables
Detailed photographs, drawings and notes on Greek Revival doorways in Ohio.
Article from Architectural Forum, "Some Greek Revival Doorways in Ohio," Nov. 1928
Drawings and notes on Greek Revival Architecture
Photographs, drawings, notes and clippings on Greek Revival Architecture
Drawings and notes on Ohio ironwork
Photographs and articles about Indiana
Photographs and manuscripts about Vincennes, Indiana
Photographs and notes on the American Gothic house
Magazines, Historic sites in Virginia
Manuscripts on Ohio architecture (23)
Manuscripts on architecture in general
Manuscripts on Nathan C. Ricker (15)
Manuscripts on Illinois and the U. of I. (6)

Publications by T. E. O'Donnell, 1923-29, 1940 including:
  Monthly Bulletin, Illinois Society of Architects, April-May 1940 (ed. by O'Donnell)
  "The Early Architecture in the State of Ohio" (1923)
  "The Major Motif in the Sixtieth Convention, A.I.A." (1927)
  "Some Greek Revival Doorways in Ohio" (1928)
  "Old English Bench-Ends" (1928)
  "The Home of the Greek Revivalist" (undated)

Articles on people, ca. 1929
Photographs, magazine articles and clippings on Roman Architecture
Articles on Southern Illinois University Library and the Library of Congress
Articles on Lincoln University, Chester County, Pennsylvania
Magazine articles, clippings, pictures on aspects of architecture
Architecture booklist, "Selected Bibliography of Writings on American and British Architecture, American Sculpture, and the Minor Arts during the Victorian Period," ca. 1958

Magazine articles, clippings on English-Romanesque-Norman Architecture
Photographs and notes on Rock Island County, Illinois
Magazine articles, clippings about buildings, 1928, 1950

American Institute of Architects and Central Illinois Chapter, A.I.A., 1927-44
  Correspondence of O'Donnell as member of the A.I.A. and the Central Illinois Chapter.
  Most of the material relates to the Central Illinois Chapter, most notably to by-law revision.
  Also included are some minutes of the chapter meetings.

Andirons - drawings
Bridges - pictures and articles
Conductor Heads, Old English - drawings and notes

Box 2:

Early American Architects, Vols. 1-4, MSS (4 folders)
Early American Ornamental Iron - drawings, notes and articles
English Bench Ends - drawings
English Cottage Iron - drawings
Fences, Colonial - drawings
Garden Walks - drawings
Hardware, Early American - drawings
Mormon Architecture - drawings, pictures and articles
Old Door Knockers - drawings
Pumps - photographs
Shutter Designs - drawings and articles
Sun Dials - drawings
Trellis Design - drawings
Weather Vanes - drawings, illustrations and sales information

Box 3:

Photographs: Illinois: Albion - Divernon; Edwardsville - New Haven; Olney - Waterloo
Ohio: Ashland - Litchfield; Marietta - Wooster
Other states: Connecticut, Wisconsin, Unidentified