

14/2/24

Law

Faculty

Kenneth S. Carlston Papers, 1935-66

Box 1:

Publications

"The Marshall Plan." Preprinted from Opinion and Comment, February 16, 1948. 8 p.

"The Elements of Peace." Reprinted from Journal of Public Law. Spring, 1952. 39 p.

Correspondence (incoming), 1949-53

Letters from professors at various United States universities offering criticisms of Carlston's publications: "Antitrust Policy: A Problem of Statecraft" (Yale Law Journal, 1959); "The Elements of Peace" (Journal of Public Law, 1952); "Role of the Antitrust Laws in a Democratic Society" (Northwestern University Law Review, 1952); and "Theory of Arbitration Process" (Law and Contemporary Problems, 1952). Other correspondents are: U.S. Representative William L. Springer, Assistant Secretary of State, Dean Rusk, and Assistant Attorney General, N. Barnes, Interdepartmental university correspondence relating to Carlston's contributions to campus programs.

Encyclopedia Britannica Articles, 1955-58

International Administrative Law, 1951-61

Correspondence and documents (including chapter outlines) concerning the funding and progress of a study of international administrative law and the United Nations, undertaken by Carlston and Dr. Thomas Haynes of the Department of Philosophy, Lehigh University. Correspondents include: Dr. Haynes, Dean Frederick T. Wall, Chairman of the Research Board of the University of Illinois, and John B. Howard of the Ford Foundation.

Mexican Claims Commission, 1935-36

Undated, handwritten notes concerning cases involving settlements of international claims. Printed documents dealing with the establishment and operations of the Special Mexican Claims Commission. Letter from Edgar Turlington, member of the Commission (April 22, 1936).

Arabian American Oil Company, 1946-57

Photocopied excerpts from the Annual Reports of the Arabian American Oil Company relating to industrial and business development projects within Saudi Arabia.

Restrictive Business Practices, 1953-54

Correspondence of Samuel K. Kopper, Counselor for the Arabian American Oil Company, and Chairman of the Committee on International Restrictive Business Practices of the American Branch of the International Law Association. Largely comprised of messages of committee members: William E. Cannon, Kenneth S. Carlston, Earl Cruickshank, Martin Domke, Karl B. Graff, Daniel M. Gribbon, George E. Hale, William G. Harris, John N. Hazard, James N. Hyde, James O'Brien, Frank H. Platt, John Stevenson, and Robert R. Wilson. Also includes working papers of the United States Chamber of Commerce's Ad Hoc Committee on Restrictive Business Practices and documents of the United Nations' Economic and Social Council.

Restrictive Business Practices, 1955 (2 folders)

Correspondence of Samuel K. Kopper about proposals before the United Nations' Economic and Social Council for the establishment of an international organization to deal with restrictive business practices. Printed documents of the United States Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers'. Statements by Sigmund Timberg, Samuel K. Kopper, and D. U. Strikker, and addresses made before the Summer Institute of the University of Michigan Law School by Gilbert H. Montague and Samuel K. Kopper.

Restrictive Business Practices, 1956-64

Correspondence of Samuel K. Kopper and Kenneth S. Carlston, who assumed Chairmanship of the Committee on International Restrictive Business Practices in March, 1958. Includes letters from Cecil J. Olmstead, Honorary Secretary of the American Branch of the International Law Association.

Box 2:

Notes, 1958-63

Photocopies and written and typed notes from the works of: Paul Goodman, Henry A. Kissinger, George L. S. Shuckle, Edgar Snow, and other. Incomplete typescript of "International Administrative Law: A Venture in Legal Theory," by Carlston. Scattered correspondence, including a letter to Dean Frederick T. Wall requesting appointment to the Center for Advanced Study to begin full-time study of African culture and law (January 7, 1963).

Nationalization and International Claims, 1958

Undated written and typed notes dealing with the nationalization of industries and legislation pertaining to mineral rights in Latin America. Citations to cases and decisions. Documents, including agreements between Aramco (Arabian American Oil Company) and nations in the Middle East, and a photocopy of "Nationalization of Foreign Property Interests, Particularly Those Subject to Agreements with the State," by Cecil Olmstead.

Suez Canal, 1954-57

Typescript of a letter written by Carlston to the Editor of The New York Times. Documents relating to the nationalizations of the Suez Canal and international laws regarding mineral rights. Citations to cases and decisions involving international concessions and claims

Suez Canal, 1955-57

Copies of official documents (in French) dealing with the operations of the Suez Canal Company and the nationalization of the Company by the Egyptian government in 1956

Committee on Forums, 1959-63

Correspondence of Philip A. Wadsworth, Chairman of the Committee (1960-61 and 1961-62) relating to the formulation of a lecture series for the academic year and the securing of appropriate speakers. Committee minutes and financial data.

Committee on Forums, 1961-63

Correspondence of Edward Lewis, Chairman, and working papers and publicity releases of the committee. Includes letters from Bruce Catton regarding his lecture on the Civil War, in March 1964

Committee on Forums, 1964

Correspondence of Edward Lewis relating to the lectures of Alan Lomax, Sir Bernard Lovell, Sir Julien Huxley, and others.

Committee on Forums, 1965

Commercial announcements of speakers available for lecture tours.

Correspondence of Edward G. Lewis and Kenneth S. Carlston, including letters from Gershon B. O. Collier, Representative to the United Nations for Sierra Leone.

Committee on Forums, 1965-66

Working papers of the Committee and correspondence of Kenneth S. Carlston, Chairman. Correspondents include: Milton S. Eisenhower and William Hamilton Jones of Johns Hopkins University, Dr. Kenneth Keniston of Yale University, and James A. Perkins, President of Cornell University.

"Toward a World Order of Peace", 5th Maxwell Institute, 25 August 1968