

15/7/741

Liberal Arts and Sciences

English

NCTE/Curriculum Commission File, 1955-1971

Box 1:

Correspondence, 1955-56

- Outlines for individual chapters and volumes of The English Language Arts, 5 vol., 1952-62
- Editors' Progress Reports
- Nominations and selections for commission members

Correspondence, 1957

- Agenda for meetings
- Reports on sales figures of curriculum series

Correspondence, 1958

- Reports and recommendations for collaboration between NCTE, Modern Language Assoc., the College English Assoc., and The American Studies Assoc., regarding volume four of curriculum series (The College Teaching of English)
- Outline of chapter for volume five of curriculum series, The Preparation of Teachers of the English Language Arts

Correspondence, 1959

- Progress report on writing and editing of volume four of curricular series

Correspondence (2 folders), 1961

- Proposal to establish permanent curriculum commission
- Editing schedule for volume four of curriculum series
- List of possible readers for volume five of curriculum series
- Preliminary drafts of chapters on "The Teaching of English," "Courses in Language and Linguistics," "General and Interdisciplinary Courses in Literature," "Genre Courses," "Undergraduate Programs," "The Teaching of Literary Criticism," and "Articulation between High School and College English"
- Agendas for meetings
- Selection of editor for volume five of curricular series

Box 2:

Correspondence (2 folders), 1962

- Nominations and selections for commission membership
- Directory of members
- Editing schedule for volume five of curriculum series
- Readers' comments on individual chapters of volume five
- Preliminary drafts of "The Elementary School Teacher at Work," "The Ph.D. Program for the Scholar-Teacher," "Teacher Education: English," "A Teacher's Guide with a Difference," "The Teaching of English," "The Department of English: Organization and Administration"
- Outline of publication Ends and Issues and Ways of Working, 1962
- Agenda for meetings

Correspondence, 1963

- Agendas for meetings
- Selection of commission members
- Summary Progress Report of "English Curriculum Study and Demonstration Centers"
- "What is English"
- Directory of members
- "The Place of speaking and Listening"
- Discussion Guide for The Education of Teachers of English (volume five of curriculum series)

Correspondence, 1964

- Proposed Outlines for Ends and Issues and Ways of Working

Correspondence, 1965

- Agendas for meetings
- Selection of commission members

Correspondence, 1966

- Agendas for meetings
- Curriculum projects in conjunction with U.S. Office of Education's Program in English
- Directory of members
- Selection of speakers and representatives for cooperating professional meetings

Correspondence, 1967

- "Selecting and Evaluating Audio-Visual Materials" by Robert Shafer (International Reading Association)
- Agendas for meetings
- Directory of members
- Progress report on "English Curriculum Development by Local School Districts," "Teaching of Reading in Elementary and Secondary Schools," "Humanities Programs in the High School," and "Testing in English"

Correspondence, 1968

- Directory of members
- Agendas for meetings
- "Outline on Reading" by Robert B. Ruddell
- "Designing Instruction in English For the Future"
- Newsletters
- "Innovation, Research and Teaching of English - A Rationale" by E. Glyn Lewis

Box 3:

Correspondence, 1969

- "Reading" by Kenneth S. Goodman
- Agendas for meetings
- "The Limitations and Advantages of Behavioral Objectives in the Arts and Humanities" by James Hoetker
- Program for conference on Behavioral Objectives
- "Gull Lake Report on the Relationship of School and College Departments of English" (Michigan State University conference in English)
- "A Study of the Use of State Curriculum Guides"

"Preparing a Curriculum Guide" by Ruth Reeve and Dorothy Knappenberger
Selection of members
Correspondence, 1970
Agendas for meetings
Notes from "Conference on the Objectives of English in a Time of Change"
Misbehaviorist English: A Position Paper" by James Moffett
"On Writing Behavioral Objectives for English" by John Maxwell and Anthony Tovatt
"Objectives Are for Decision-Making" by Garlie Forehand
"Behavioral Objectives Analysis and Application" by Lanny E. Morreau
Directory of members
Outline for publication extending On Behavioral Objectives
"Program Planning Accountability: Writing Educational Fortune Cookies" by Tom Gage
Accountability Statement, 1971
Correspondence, 1971
Agendas for meetings
Questionnaire on minority units in English curriculum
Directory of members
Preliminary places for The Teacher's Right to Teach publication
Position Paper on Relationship between Class Size in Learning, 1971
Minutes of Meetings, 1970-71
Correspondence, 1972
Agendas for meetings
Directory of members
Proposal to prepare monograph on materials for teaching minority groups
Preconvention Conference on Systems Approaches to Curriculum Development, 1971-72
Correspondence, 1973
Agenda for meetings
Preliminary outline for "What is Good English Teaching"
"Social Studies Curriculum Guidelines"
Correspondence, 1974-75
Agenda for meetings