Paul B. Anderson Papers, 1909-1988

Papers of Paul B. Anderson (1894-1985), including correspondence, maps, notes, reports, photographs, publications and speeches about the YMCA World Service (1919-58), International Committee (1949-78), Russian Service (1917-81), Paris Headquarters (1922-67) and Press (1919-80); American Council of Voluntary Agencies (1941-47); Anglican-Orthodox Documents & Joint Doctrinal Commission (1927-77); China (1913-80); East European Fund & Chekhov Publishing House (1951-79); displaced persons (1940-52); ecumenical movement (1925-82); National Council of Churches (1949-75); prisoners of war (1941-46); Religion in Communist Dominated Areas (1931-81); religion in Russia (1917-82); Russian Correspondence School (1922-41); Russian emigrés (1922-82); Russian Orthodox Church (1916-81) and seminaries (1925-79); Russian Student Christian Movement (1920-77); Tolstoy Foundation (1941-76) and War Prisoners Aid (1916-21).

For an autobiographical account, see Donald E. Davis, ed., No East or West: The Memoirs of Paul B. Anderson (Paris: YMCA-Press, 1985). For Paul Anderson's "Reflections on Religion in Russia, 1917-1967" and a bibliography, see Richard H. Marshall Jr., Thomas E. Bird and Andrew Q. Blane, Eds., Aspects of Religion in the Soviet Union 1917-1967 (Chicago: University of Chicago, 1971).

Provenance Note:

The Paul B. Anderson Papers first arrived at the University Archives on May 16, 1983. They were opened on September 11, 1984 and a finding aid completed on December 15, 1984. The cost of shipping the papers and the reproduction of the finding aid was borne by the Russian and East European Center. Part of the cost of preparing this finding aid was covered by a grant from the University Research Board. Dr. Richard D. King, Kirsten Kite, James S. Patrick, David Haury, and Roxanne Dunn processed the papers.

Between the initial accession and his death, Paul Anderson continued to mail small additions for the papers, and the University Archives received an additional four cubic feet of Paul Anderson's papers from his wife in June, 1987. The new materials were integrated into the existing collection and substantially expanded the holdings on the following topics:

- Ecumenical, 1925, 1940-82 (Boxes 16-17)
- Russian Orthodox Church, 1949-71 (Box 21)
- Russian Orthodox Church, 1972-81 (Box 22)
- Russian Student Christian Movement (RSCM) (Boxes 22-23)
- France, 1940-46, 1972-78 (Box 24)
- USSR, 1917-27 (Box 25)
- USSR, 1963-84 (Boxes 27-28)
- Maps, 1913-80 (Box 28)
- Typescripts for Talks, 1936-82 (Box 32)

Also included were several early drafts of and notes for Anderson's autobiography, No East or West. These materials greatly expanded the Memoirs section in Boxes 34 and 35. In May 2005 material from R.H. Edwin Espy (Associate General Secretary) was added in regard to the NCC and WCC and ecumenical delegations to and from Russia. The copies of the December 1984, May 1998, and May 2005 finding aid in the University Archives have been updated to reflect these additions. Extensive additions to the finding aid for Boxes 1-9 as well as more limited edits to boxes 10-42 were made in 2006/07 by Dr. Alexander Gurevich of the Russian State Library for Foreign Literature. For more detailed information, one should contact the archives staff.
