Series 1: Personal, 1954-1989
This series contains her CV, correspondence, photographs, academic records, travel documents, and her biographical history. Of particular interest is a professional history based on an interview conducted in 1982; the history covers a range of topics related to Yates's work for the U.S. Foreign Service and academic career at UIUC, including early feminist activism on campus. This series is arranged alphabetically.
