He complains, "most of its attacks or criticisms on me in your section of the country have emanated directly or indirectly from things you have said about me"; he also objects to Clark furthering stories that he "brought an entire suitcase filled with liquor for the boys (of DKE house)". He also explains that he has "taken a position strongly opposed to your policy of harsh repression and a sort of Russian spy system for the training and upbringing of young men" and hopes that his own local chapter of DKE would expel any member "who acts as a 'secret' representative of the Deans's Office," 3/3/28).

"inhibiting or attempting to inhibit the outbursts here with regard to my staying on:" charges that President Kinley "takes no more interest in my existence than did I not exist," 5/21/30; Scott expresses his opinion that President Kinley cannot attempt to retire Clark in the face of popular support for Clark and Chases's conversation, recorded in Clark's letter of 2/12/30; Scott admits that Kinley has right to exercise "all the functions of his office until the last minute of his tenure, but it doesn't seem likely that he would do so - even he - in a case of this kind. Most folks have a decent regard for their successors," 5/18/30. For Illini editorial endorsing Clark's continuance, referred to in Scott's 5/18/30 letter see Daily Illini, 5/11/30, page 4. Scott, Frank W. (Several Letters under various dates, including Clark to Scott and Scott to Clark describing political developments at the University at the time of President Chase's accession. Clark to Scott on 9/12/30, concerning Clark's interesting and satisfactory initial conversations with Pres. Chase. Comments on his continuing disagreements with Prof. James White, Supervising Architect, "who has tried his darndest to make an impression [on Pres. Chase] and to queer most of the projects which I had in mind." Still Clark was confident he would finally get what he wanted in respect to McKinley Hospital, "in spite of the fact that he and David have fought me for the last ten years." Clark mentions that Pres. Chase has already suggested a reorganization of the Senate and the Council.

Clark to Scott, 10/8/30, concerning continued cordial relations with Pres. Chase who "so far, ... has done everything I have asked him to do, and several things which neither Prof. White nor President Kinley would give any consideration to." Mentions that Pres. Kinley's threatened reorganization of the Council and Senate has finally after ten years been started by Pres. Chase, with the formation of committees to make suggestions on reorganization. In Clark's opinion, "The Senate is hopelessly big and ineffective. It does nothing in reality excepting give an opportunity to Tom Oliver, Professors Noyes, Oldfather, and Larson to make speeches."

Comments that nearly everyone has heard from Pres. Kinley since he left. "He [Kinley] seems to be softening. He is anxious to be forgiven, though he does not say so in so many words and he hopes that all that was unpleasant and disagreeable may be blotted out of our memory. I hope so to.... I think it is quite unlikely that he realizes just what has been thought of him. He will be a sad picture when he comes back, as he intends to do, and settles down in the community."

Scott to Clark, 10/5/30. Scott is favorably impressed by Pres. Chase's recent speeches to students, faculty, and alumni in Chicago. Comments, "I was glad to notice that he seemed interested in education rather than architecture, construction, and landscape gardening, all tinctured with military."

Clark to Scott, 1/26/31, "Things are boiling here now. The appointment of these committees to suggest the reorganization of the University has brought out the bolsheviks and extremists. Everything is going to be different; salaries are going to be doubled; freedom is to be the watchword; The Council of Administration and the Dean of Men are to be done away with. The Deans and the President are to continue only on the approval of the faculty. It is going to be wonderful. You could name the crazy ones without any suggestions from me."

Clark to Scott, 4/10/31, mentions Dean Kendric Babcock's plans to retire. Clark thinks others should do the same. The "radicals are calming down a little, and our Senate meetings show that we still have a few men with balanced judgment. We are meeting every week now and the discussions are interesting to listen to. I take no part."

Clark to Scott, 4/27/31, contains very good autobiographical sketch of Clark's early years. He has included facts here that are not found elsewhere. Courses he took at the University; work on the Illini; because of graduation requirements he had to take 25 hours his last term in order to graduate. At the same time he was editor of the Illini, president of the Philomathean Society, president of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church, "pretty thoroughly in love," and involved in politics. Despite all of these, Clark's scholastic average for four years "was something over 97 per cent."

Clark to Scott, 5/25/31 - continuing discussion of whether there should be a Dean of Men and a Dean of Women after Clark's retirement. Clark convinced positions will be continued. Plans to recommend Prof. Shaw for Dean of Women.

Clark to Scott, 6/22/31 - former Pres. Kinley dined at Clark's, "had a very gloomy evening." Pres. Kinley was proud of the reception he received in Orient.

Clark to Scott, 8/11/31 - mentions gossip and dissatisfaction on campus after new appointments were announced. "I believe the President is going to run things next year, and I wouldn't be surprised if he did it rather satisfactorily. David [Kinley] has been back two or three times, very critical and very non-committal as to what he is going to do and where.")
