

41/3/21

Student Affairs

Dean of Women

Miriam A. Sheldon Papers, 1910-74

Box 1:

Personal File, 1947-74

Correspondence and contracts

Vitae

Speeches, undated

Sorority rush, student government, student wives, married women students, orientation, residence hall staffs, campus morality, student personnel work history

1947-50

Freshman orientation, women's education, attitudes toward scholarship

1951-52

Exams, college women and world, campus citizenship (2 drafts), national defense, vocations, student characteristics, freshmen, Illini Dads, housing

1953-54

Dean of Women's functions, homosexuality, honor students, mass education, citizenship, coed regulations, sororities

1955-56

Morality, gifted children, sororities, freshmen, education of women, youth, national defense, financial aid

1957-58

Women at the University of Illinois, Robert D. Morgan, Mother's Association, student life, freshmen, social hygiene, citizenship, scholarship students, sororities, awards, Dames Club, college choice

1959-60

Freshmen, sororities, student values, personal enrichment, college choice, campus activities, life patterns of women, discipline

1961-62

Mother's Association, residence halls, student services, freshmen, careers for women, regulations, work-study programs, national student organizations, sororities, residence hall staff, discipline, college choice, student leadership

1963-64

Undergraduate in university, student life, American woman, Dean of Women, University of Illinois in 1923, honor camp, training for adulthood, house directors, Dames Club, college choice, undergraduate students, morality, admissions, academic freedom, Christian women, residence halls, status of women, women's education, women in 20th century, equal opportunities, continuing education

1965

Women's education, sororities, student personnel administration, student activities, education of disadvantaged, history of the University of Illinois, professional preparation for student personnel service, the woman dean, Mother's

Association, house directors, students at the University of Illinois, Illini Guides, student unrest, rules counseling

1966

Morality, women in higher education, women's physical education, university community, women in society, history of the University of Illinois, student life, student-administration conflict, student unrest, house directors, Illini Guides, freshmen, home economics, Dean of Women

1967

Student personnel administration, college educated woman, status of women, student participation in governance, Mother's Association, continuing education, sex, honor residents, University of Illinois organization, house directors, Illini Guides, leadership roles, sororities, change in University student characteristics, history of the University of Illinois

1968-69

Compensatory education, new student orientation, continuing education, college educated women, student characteristics, Margaret Chase Smith, student personnel profession, Illini Guides, women in leadership roles, head residents, house directors, student culture, black sororities, changing campus climate, student life, Special Educational Opportunities Program, Office of Student Personnel

1970-74

History of the University of Illinois, scholastic achievement, Mother's Association, status of women, women at the University of Illinois, organization of student services, Dad's Association, career planning, Office of Student Personnel, black students, sororities, affirmative action

Correspondence regarding speeches, 1950-63

Speeches and papers by others

Clippings

Sorority House Rules, 1910-11